Snooping Around

„Let's recapitulate again," Jason said, lifting a forefinger. "It's very important to stay quiet, or to not give an information in any way. You know, he'll try to get some hint."

His four favorite bunnies adoringly looked up at him, their bunny-eyes wide.

"So, it's no hopping around the couch, or the armchairs, and especially his guitars. James ALWAYS tries to get pre-information where his Easter-eggs or his Easter chocolate-bunnies are hidden."

All of a sudden Jason noticed some movement at the door and saw the quickly vanishing fluffy tail of Jamie Bunny. James' bunny!

"Shit! We got spied out!"
